Rita Engedalen - Chapels and Bars (vinyl)

Chapels And Bars is blues queen Rita Engedalen's 4th record. Rita has built a large audience through impressive festival performances and tours home and abroad. Finally, the critically acclaimed 2011 release "Chapels And Bars" album is available on vinyl. "The mix of Tradition and modernity at its best when our female blues champion release her best-ever best record" Stein Østbø wrote to 5/6 in VG. "Blues Queen of Jondalen impresses" wrote Øyvind Rønning to 5/6 in Dagbladet.

NilasaliN - NilasaliN

NilasaliN was founded in 2013 and has exclusively focused on original material ever since. Throughout the years, the band has been working hard on their music as well as performing live, which has resulted in strong musical interplay.

The melody is the main focus in NilasaliN's compositions and the amalgamate of trombone and guitar as the main voices, results in a unique soundscape. The music presented is a blend of both highly composed material and freer musical segments. The ensemble takes advantage of the possibilities that the broad lineup has to offer by using various orchestrations, as well as dividing the band into trio, duo, quartet, quintet and solo format.

NilasaliN has a sound that embraces a wide range of genres, with elements of Norwegian folk music, rock, pop to free improvisation. Nevertheless, the band is primarily working within the modern, Scandinavian jazz idiom.

All band members contribute with compositions which offers diversity and all song titles are dedicated either to acquaintances, family or different geographical places the band members somehow are related to. The album was recorded and mixed by David Aleksander Sjølie in Urban Sound Studios and Kvadraturen Studio, as well as mastered by Morgan Nicolaysen at Propeller Mastering, August-November 2017, Oslo, Norway.

Stubø, Kjersti Kvintett - Notis (vinyl)

Already out on CD

Kjersti Stubø Kvintett's new album, Notis is based on a piece of Norwegian jazz history. The audience is presented for a selection of the late Northern Norway jazz guitarist Thorgeir Stubøs (1943-1986) compositions from the 1970s and 80s. On note, these compositions, originally instrumental, have received newly written lyrics in northern Norwegian and Sami by Kjersti Stubø, and are presented in new and exciting arrangements by Kjersti Stubø Kvintett. Many of the compositions are so far unknown to the public and were also unknown to the musicians - until they appeared in a secluded box in the basement of Kjersti and Håvard's childhood home a few years ago. We have approached the material with respect, and it has been an exciting task to interpret and process the material and give it the final finish with lyrics and arrangements. We look forward to presenting these to the jazz audience! VINYL will come later.

Kjersti Stubø – vocals // Jørn Øien – piano // Håvard Stubø – guitar // Mats Eilertsen – kontrabass // Håkon Mjåset Johansen - drums

Team Hegdal - Vol 4 (vinyl)

Team Hegdal finally releases its fourth album, two years after the quartet's Grammy Awarded "Vol 3", where the Swedish pianist comrade Oscar Grönberg was a guest. The same Grönberg contributes to "Vol 4". Eirik Hegdal is well known for his work with the Trondheim Jazz Orchestra, where he served as artistic director from 2002-2016. Team Hegdal is Hegdal's compositional laboratory in small format.

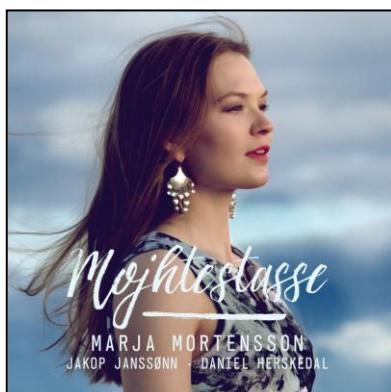

Here, each and every musician gets bigger playroom, and the music is even more transparent. "Vol 4" receives inspiration from major composers such as Mozart (Prelude/Interlude/Piano/Postlude), Ravel (Among these Trees), Messiaen (Walkin' of Fury) and Wayne Shorter (Hidden Treasure). But foremost, this is Team Hegdal's universe. Speaking their own language, where the compositions serve the musicians great ability to improvise. Team Hegdal offers a stirring interaction and virtuoso individualism, from well known Norwegian jazz musicians; Ole Morten Vågan (double bass), Gard Nilssen (drums), André Roligheten and Eirik Hegdal (saxophones and clarinets), as well as a Swedish keyboard experience; Oscar Grönberg. A Team of undisputed jazz trotters will guide you through thirteen customized compositions, released both on CD and LP.

Marja Mortensson - Mojhtestasse - Cultural Heirlooms

Just a few years after she released her celebrated debut album, Marja Mortensson is ready with her new release.

This time she has chosen to make her amazing voice become even clearer - through a minimalist and acoustic production where the joik and roots become even more prominent. The unique crew with Daniel Herskedal on the tuba bass trumpet and Jakop Jansson on percussion creates an intimate feeling and a wonderful live sound. The album celebrates Marja's voice, music and its roots in her southern and ume saami heritage in a completely new and breathtaking way!
