Mathisen/Breistein - Gadgets

«Mathisen / Breistein» is an ensemble started by guitarist Svein Rikard Mathisen and saxophonist Inge Weatherhead Breistein. Since they started playing together, they have written compositions that have been heard in the format of duo and quartet, as well as a commission work ("Mutant") for quintet, written for, and performed at, Nattjazz in 2017. The duo now releases their first album on AMP Music & Records.

Ragnhild Furholt - Vårevinden

Ragnhild Furholt is one of Norway's finest folk singers. She comes from Vest-Agder county, but has for many years been educated in folk music at the Rauland Academy in Telemark. The repertoire is both taken from older folk-singers, from archive recordings and interpreted older sheet music. Anders Røine and Elisabeth Vatn is also appearing on this album.

Needlepoint - The Diary Of Robert Reverie (cd and vinyl)

What do you get if you combine Robert Wyatt and Syd Barret's melodies with the very best from the 70's fusion and the playful feeling of early Weather Report? Put in some grooves of Return to Forever, and finally add a slice of the classy and thoughtful songwriting of progrock legends like Caravan and Camel? Well, you might not get the latest Needlepoint album, but at least we're close.

A lot of these references were explored on the band's previous album "Aimless Mary", but on "The Diary of Robert Reverie" they embrace them even more - it's effortless, enthusiastic and playful. Olaf Olsen's drums are even more present, and dynamically swirls up the songs, while David Wallumrød plays the keys with an organic nerve as if the sound came from the earth itself. Everything is supervised by producer and bassplayer Nikolai Hængsle, who is not afraid to turn on the fuzz when needed not unlike Soft Machine, still there's melody in each bass line. At the same time maestro and songwriter Bjørn Klakegg's guitar floats all over it and keeps it together ranging from soft jazzheat to wild rock heroism.

Many of the lyrics are inspired by the environment around Bjørns place in Sweden, and the main character Robert, a dreamy individual, is also inspired by the nice, sometimes strange people in the small village. Bjørns older brother Rune Klakegg has illustrated the cover.
