Siri's Svale Band - 30 Years With

Siri's Svale Band is back. The band made great success from the late 1980s, but it has been quiet around the quintet since 2001. Their two album releases were very well received and the debut album Blackbird from 1990 is a favorite collectors item. The word "Svale" is northern and mean cool. In the jazz this is a most relevant term, not least since several of the band members are familiar with the cooljazz tradition. The distinctive deep and rhythmic soundtrack is now enhanced with the bassist Celio Barros from Brazil, who has moved to Norway because of his fascination with the soundtrack of Blackbird. In February the band went into the studio. In connection with the recording, the band found that no one had the original recordings from 1990 and 1997. The result was a box of three CD's -30 years with Svale band. The 2018 edition of Siri's Svale Band consists of: Siri Gellein - Vocal, John Pål Inderberg - Baritone Saxophone, Bjørn Alterhaug - Bass, Celio Barros Bass, Carl Haakon Waadeland - Drums

Norvald Dahl Organic Chamber – Organic Chamber (vinyl)

This drum-less "chamber group" is a unique addition to the world of jazz as well as the contemporary classical tradition. With original compositions, ranging from 12-tone music to poly-rhythmical and polyharmonic concepts, combined with spontaneous interplay and free improvisation, 'Organic Chamber' is always fresh and challenges the ear of the listener. A rather unusual lineup of piano, bass and Mezzo soprano saxophone leaves a lot of open space where textures and overtones can shine and come through. Norwegian born pianist Norvald Dahl (b.1978) is now a master student at the highly acclaimed Norwegian academy of music in Oslo. He has been touring and playing professionally for the past ten years, and is associated with groups like the "Wayne Brasel Quartet" and his own quartet, the "Norvald Dahl trio plus Jon Irabagon". Dahl grew up surrounded with music, in particular folk music, and discovered the piano at early age. He soon discovered improvisation and found jazz to be the perfect vehicle for him to express his musicality. In his playing he combines influences from legends like Herbie Hancock and Bill Evans, and blends with lyricism from Norwegian folk music and a classical tone on the piano. Dahl has been touring and playing with Jon Irabagon since 2012, and wanted to form a new group with Jon playing the rather unusual 'F' saxophone (mezzo soprano). Jon Irabagon (b.1979) is an award-winning american saxophonist (winner of the Thelonius Monk Jazz Competition among many others), well known from groups like Mostly Other People Do The Killing, Mary Halvorsen Quintet, Dave Douglas Quintet and much more. He has been recorded on over 100 albums and has already released 10 records as a leader. Mats Eilertsen who appears on over 80 recordings (b.1975) is one of the highest 'in demand musicians' in Europe. He is constantly working and touring with groups such as Skydive, Rubicon and Nils Økland group, and just finished a new recording with his own group 'Mats Eilertsen Trio' for ECM. On 'Organic Chamber' Mats shines with his in-depth knowledge of his instrument and personal touch, creating soundscapes and overtones that highlights the music. Together with Jon, who is also a virtuoso on the use of overtones and tweaking on the horn, they join forces and blend seamlessly with the sounds and overtones of Dahl's piano. The result is nothing but a truly 'Organic Chamber' experience.

Knut Kvifte Nesheim – Results (vinyl)

RESULTS is the debut solo album from 25 year old Norwegian drummer, Knut Kvifte Nesheim. A collection of fragmented and frissonistic drum solo pieces, recorded over two days in his home in Oslo. The 14 tracks which last between 1 – 5 minutes, are a window into the extreme sensitivity, range and tactility of Knuts' playing; flipping between wonky rhythmic play, and complex multi-layered sound worlds. Joining an under-saturated history of drum kit soloists before him, RESULTS spacious and subtle approach carves a promising and refreshing place for the drums as a solo instrument in 2018.
